At Islip, Gillett, Republican Union, has over 100 majority. This is an increase over last year. At Brookbaven 1289 votes were polled, and the Democratic majority is reduced to 24, over 100 less than last year.

Election at Annapolis.—At an election at Annapolis, Md., on Monday, the following Union ticket was elected for corporation officers:—For Mayor, Richard Swans, 145 majority; for Recorder, N. Brewer, of John, 143 majority; for Aldermen, John B. Magruder, 145 majority; J. Guest King, 145 majority; David I. Capron, 139 majority; Harry Levely, 133 majority; Nathaniel Clow, 145 majority. There was no regular opposition.

Singular.—Nashville, the home of President Johnson, has just elected Major Lewis, a bitter Copperhead, Mayor by a very large majority.

City Liections in Ohio.—Cincinnati, Dayton,
Columbus, and Ravenna all elect Radical Republican Mayors and City Councils.

Instructions.—Iowa, Missouri, and Minnesota, by their Legislatures, instruct their Senstors to vote for the Civil Rights bill, the President's veto to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Connecticut Election-Latest Footing Up. The Hartford Times (Copperhead) says:-We the towns in full or by majorities, from all the towns in the State, with the following result:—Hawley, 26,769; English, 26,404. Hawley's majority, 365. This is a close shave, and the official figures may change it entirely—or may possibly increase Hawiey's majority.
"At Heme."—Hawley runs 140 behind his ticket in Hartford—his home. English runs 50 ahead of his ticket, and gets 1550 majority in

New Haven-his home. Another Footing Up.—A despatch from Hart-ford last night says:—A telegram from Sauls-bary gave English one hundred more votes than bary gave English one annared more votes than he received there, and this correction, with others which have been reported, increases Hawley's majority to 599. We have the vote of every town in the State, which gives the following aggregate:—Hawley, 43,847; English, 43,248. Hawley's majority, 599. The contest in some of the Senatorial districts of Connections of the ticut on Monday last was very close, the Demo-cratic candidate having been elected in the Sixteenth district by 85 majority, and the Re-publican candidate in the Seventeenth by only 12 majority.

The Rhode Island Election.—The Providence Journal has returns from all the towns in the State except three, showing for Burnside (National Union), 7749; for Lyman Pierce (Demo-crat), 2456, and scattering, 142. The remaining towns will not materially change the relative result.

Young America Feeling His Oats.

There is a patient in an up-town insane retreat who believes that he holds on to one end of and regulates, the axis around which the world moves, and that a moment's lebinquishment of his grasp would result in a general flying to pieces of the universe. Mis Poyter, in the story of "Adam Bede," compares a vain man to a conceited chanticleer, who improved that the arm rose in the heavyers simcompares a vain man to a conceited chanticleer, who supposed that the sun rose in the heavens simply to hear him crow and see him clap his wings. Travellers tell of an idioic Egyptian wao informs strangers that the pylamids we e built for his especial tenefit. Now, we are not aware that Mr. Scovel, of New Jersey, is either an insane, conceited, or idioic moral; and yet, judging from the sivie of his witing and speaking, he evidently telleves that he regulates the movements of both world and sun, and that Cheops designed his great work as an especial, mausoleum for the Senator from Camden. A man was hung for murder, in Cleveland, Ohio a few months ago, who confessed that he committed the crime simply from a confc3sed that he committed the crime simply from a desire to see himself figure in print. We do not suppose that Mr. Scovel has incurred the risk of political extinction in order to have his name daily paraded at length in the New York apers; on the contrary, he may believe that a great wrong has been done to Mr. Stockton, and that it is his duty to aid in repairing it. But when the youthful Solon, instead of quietly voting as he may think best, goes out of his way to write silly letters and make vainglorious tracelles he must not avecel to exame the shall select a second the shall select as the same the shall select as the same that we have the same the shall select as the same the same that shall select as the same that shall shall select as the same that shall shall shall select as the same that shall speeches, he must not expect to escape the shalls of ridicule. For instance, in his communication to The FHILADELPHIA EVENING TELEGRAPH, he says The f-HILADELPHIA EVENING TELEGRAPH, he says his enessies have "hunted me like a partridge in the mountains, and cherge me with daily violating the ten commandments." He then asks, "What am I to Hecuba or Hocuba to me, that I should weep for her? Who dares to say that I will not go into joint meeting for Field, Vandyke, or Gregory? M God created me with a brain which is not blind to injustice, or a heart which sides with a man when he is oppressed. I do not choose to apologize for that." Again, in a speech which he delivered yesterday, he zells us:—

My reputation is as dear to me as is that of any man apon the floor of this honorable body. I stand upon a moral basis in this matter. [Smiling among some of the Republican Senators.] Yes. I see that some there are who smile when I assert that I stand on a moral basis in this question; but it is so, as you yet will see. I mast go forward. Honor is in front of me. Nothing but dishonor awaits my retreat. If I go down, I go down like the Camberland, with her flag flying at the mast; and at east will be lett for me this consolation. This specimen of grandilconence will compare

This specimen of grandilequence will compare very tavorably with the remarks of a member of the late Mi-sissippi State Convention, who said: the late Mi-sissippi State Convention, who said:—

I am a mossy back, sir, and I stand here to-day to represent the county of Jones. People said that the county of Jones secoded from Mississippi. Yes, sir, we did recede from the Confederacy, and, sir, we fought them like dogs; we killed them inke devis: we buried them like asses. Yes, like asses, sir! My own people down there in the county of Jones did, in their sovereign capacity, secode, and did become mossy-backs. We did fight them like dogs, end kill them like helitons—like helitons—like helitons, I say, sir. But I didn's come up here to gas, sir, and I surrender my rights to the floor, sir, expressing only the one tentiment that I stand up for the county of Jones in general; yes, sir, I am for Jones all the time. In my suffering county the waits of three hundred and eighty withowed women and shirt-tail children are reconding before the God of right and appealing in tears to the powers appointed for resief.

Whatever may be the result of the contest now pealing in tears to the powers appointed for relief.

Whatever may be the result of the contest now raying at Trenton, we trust that Mr. Scovel will not be sent to Washington. With Davis in the Senate, and Banks in the House, there is already an "abundant sufficiency" of Elijah Pograms in Congress. Let the name of Scovel be famous in the "ladies" ordinary," on the battle field, or be written on a New Jercty tomb, but never let it be entered on the books of the United States Senate.—N. Y. Commercial Adof the United States Senate .- N. Y. Commercial Ad vertiser, (Copperhead).

FRAUDULENT BANK DRAFTS.

A GRAND SWINDLING SCHEME-CAUTION TO WEST-ERN AND EASTERN MERCHANTS AND BUSINESS

A grand scheme of fraud and deception in this A grand scheme of fraud and deception in this city, but to be carried on in the cities and towns of the West, has Just been developed. A prominent bank of this city yesterday received from one of its correspondents in the West, for collection, a draft for five hundred dollars, purporting to be issued by the Patteburg Banking house, drawn on Drexol & Co. of Philadelphia, and signed "J. S. Howard". The erait was a fraud on its face, and the officers of the bank to whom it was sent were not long in ascertaining that a stranger in this city had printed at one of our lithographic establishments one thousand drafts. taining that a stranger in this city had printed at one of our lithographic establisments one thousand drafts for the "Pitisburg Banking House," an institution unknown here, and whose existence was never heard of until this fraudulent draft turned up. There is no such establishment in this city as the "Pittsburg Banking House," and business men of the Western cities and towns should be warned against negotiating drafts purporting to be issued thereby. It is a bold piece of swindling that is likely to prove successful in many localities, and it would be well for the police of the several prominest towns and cities to be neated relative to the matter, in order that the the police of the several prominent towns and cicles to be posted relative to the matter, in order that the perpetrators may be brought to justice.—Pittsburg Commercial, 4th.

-A Constantinople paper says that two antiquaries, in making excavations in Syria, have discovered a Jawish habitation entire, the construction of which dates two centuries previous to the Christian era. Its rooms are furnished after the Egyptian style, and these gentlemen found in them the five books of Moses, the Psalms of David, and another book containing Hebrew poetry, completely unknown.

ARGUMENT POSTPONED.—The argument which was to have taken place this morning before Recorder Eneu in the case of the parties charged with conspiring to cheat and defraud in the Monongahela, otherwise known as the Monongalia Oil Company of West Virginia, was postponed on account of the absence of Mr. Ruddiman, one of the defendant's counsel. argument was simply to decide a technicality, whether the parties should be bound over on the charge of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses, having already been bound over to answer the charges to cheat and delraud.

"A CARGO OF RATS."-On last Saturday a strike took place among the printers of Richmond against a material reduction of wages; consequently the city of Richmond is minus the light of the countenances of five or six very neat daily papers. Yesterday the publishers advertised for journeymen to take the place of the strikers, and to-day obtained about thirty persons known professionally as "rats," or men who work for less than "Union rates," These were all "shipped" this morning in good order for the "City of the Hills,"

ATTACK ON THE HIGHWAY.-Last night George Hayagan was attacked by a gang of men at Seventh and Shippen streets, and beaten with a club. An arrest was made, and Hayagan was held to answer the charge of

Deprived of its Horrors by Purifying and Enriching the Blood.

NOW IS THE TIME TO USE A PREVENTIVE. There is None Equal to Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Fluid

Extract Sarsaparilla. THE CHOLEBA defective vitalization of the blood, and when the blood

LIFE GIVING POWER, t causes relaxation of the contractile power of the blood essats of the body, and the intestines open their myriad blood essats, and all the albumicous or fieshmaking material passes of from the bowels. PURE AND HEALTHY BLOOD RESISTS DISEASE, And while there may be no occasion for alarm, those of impure blood are most liable to suffer.

IN THE SPEING MONTSS the system naturally undergoes a change, and HILMBOLD'S RIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA is an assistant of the greatest value GIVIEG BLOOM TO THE PALLID CHEEK

IT EBADICATES ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE. DISEASES of the THROAT, NO-E, EYES, EYELIDS, SCALP and SKIN, which so disfigure the appearance, FURGING the cvil effects of mercury and removing all mints in remnants of DI EASE, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDRES with perfect SAFETY.

Not a tew of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out none can equal in effect Helmbold's Compound Extract of Sarsaparia It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the bumors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood.

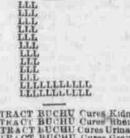

Scrofulous, mercarial, and syphilitic diseases destroy whatever part they may attack. "housands die annually from protracted diseases of the class, and from the abuse of mercury. Visit any hospital, asy um and prisons, and attisfy yourself of a c tru liminess of this asser for. The system best resists the inroats of these diseases by a judicious combination of Tonles. Belmboid's Eighly ancentrated F. und Extract Sarsaparilla is a Tonle of the arcatest value—arreating the most inveterate disease after the glands are destroyed, and the bones aiready affected. This is the testimony of thousands who be used and prescribed it for the usands who b ve used and prescribed it for the last 16 years.

BEBERBE AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirargical Review, on the subject of the extract of Sarsaparula in venerous affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. N. etc. Speaking of Syphilis, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states. That no rime by is equal to the extract of Sarsaparula; its power is extraordinary, mere so than any other drug fam acquainca with. It is in the strengt sense a tonic, with this invaluable attribute, that it is a picable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as rendres other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious."

TWO TABLESPOONS FUL of the Extract of Sarsaparila. added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon
Diet Drink, and one botte is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one botte is equal to a gallon of the Syrpp of Sarsabarilla, or the decocion as usually made.
The decocion is exceeding troublesome, as it is necessary to prepare it fresh every day, and the syrup is still more objectionable, as it is weaker than the decocion; for a full esturated with sugar is susceptible of holding in solution much less extractive matter than water alone, and he sylup is o'herwise objectionable for the patient is frequently nauscated, and his stomach surletted, by the isrge proportion of sugar he is obliged to take with each dose of Sarsaparit a and which is of no use whatever, except to keep the decocion from sooiling. Here the advantages and superiority of the Fuld Extract in a comparative view are sufficiely manifest.

He mbold's EXTRACT BUCHU Cures Kidney Disease. Helmbold's EXTRACT BUCHU Cures Rheumanism Helmbold's EXTRACT BUCHU Cures Urmary Diseases. Helmbold's EXTRACT BUCHU Cures Gravel. He m old's EXTRACT BUCHU cures Strictures. Brimbold's EXTRACT BUCHU Cures Dropsy For the diseases named above and for Weaknesses and Pains in the Back. Female Complaints and Disorders arising from excesses of any kind, it is invaluable.
